

Unitarian Universalist Forum
July, 2014
First Unitarian Universalist Church
1187 Franklin Street at Geary, Martin Luther King Room
9:30 am Sunday mornings (light breakfast offered for slight fee)

July 6 “Labor, Race and the Environment in The City of San Francisco”: Labor Fest 2014 focuses on Hunters Point and Bay View as a panel discusses how labor, racial and environmental issues affect the city of San Francisco, and how we are finding solutions to these issues in a city of vast wealth and vast disparities of income and education.

July 13, “Greening the Economy, the Emergining Green Job Sector and making Your Own Life Eco-Friendly”, with Tom Valtin, Senior Editor at the Sierra Club.

July 20, "The Impact of the Bush-era on Migratory Birds”: Laura Horton, staff attorney at the Wild Equity Institute, will discuss how the Fish and Wildlife Service's Bush-era bird nest policy encourages the destruction of nests. Learn how Wild Equity is fighting to change this disastrous policy and what needs to be done to protect to migratory birds. Ms. Horton will also give an update on Wild Equity's Antioch Dunes campaign.

July 27, Waiting at Red Lights and other Meditative Moments” with Ed Baxter, journalist and broadcaster. Ed is a member of the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame, spent over three decades at broadcast icon KGO in San Francisco. He substituted for Paul Harvey on the country’s number one radio broadcast through much of the nineties. Along the way he picked up more than 50 journalism awards including the Edward R. Murrow award for “Best Newscast”.